Objective Statutory objective of the institution. What does the institution want to achieve?

Stichting Oil Change International works to expose the true costs of fossil fuels and promote the transition to clean energy. Through advocacy, public education, research, and collaboration, the Foundation aims to shape public policy and societal awareness while empowering communities to engage in the energy transition. Operating transparently and with a non-profit mandate, it leverages partnerships and innovative strategies to drive impactful change in addressing critical energy and environmental challenges.

Outline policy plan

Answer the questions below here or enter the url to the policy plan after the last question on the policy plan. This policy plan must at least answer the policy plan questions in this form.

What activities does the institution carry out? When are which activities carried out? And how do they contribute to achieving the objective?

Engaging in advocacy efforts to shape public policy and societal awareness; producing and disseminating educational materials to inform and empower the wider public; organizing public forums, debates, and events to foster dialogue and engagement on critical issues; conducting research and analysis to provide evidence-based insights and recommendations; leveraging partnerships, collaborations, and innovative strategies to maximize its impact, whereby the Foundation will adapt its approach based on the specific needs and challenges within its focus areas; and to financially support any charitable organization as meant in section 5b of the General Tax Act.

How does the institution get revenue?

The capital of the Foundation is constituted by institutional grants, individual donations, corporate sponsorships and partnerships and online fundraising and campaigns. The foundation will only accept the proceeds of a will by means of beneficiary acceptance. All funds received shall be directed exclusively toward achieving the Foundation's objects, with full transparency and accountability to donors and stakeholders.
